Summer Schedule Adds Two Classes

Two courses have been added to the summer session schedule.

A four-credit engineering surveying course will make it possible for otherwise qualified students to graduate next spring with the new civil engineering degree.

Starting June 16, the class will meet on Saturdays for eight weeks in Room 220 in the Applied Arts Building. Instructor James Hossack may be contacted for additional details.

A refresher course in applied algebra is designed primarily for the employees of various companies who want a rapid review of algebra and its job applications.

This non-credit course will be instructed by Thomas Sires. Starting June 12, the class will meet in Room 213 of the Applied Arts Building for eight weeks.

Sharpe Praises New Process

A total of 1395 students pre-registered May 7-11 under the new IBM process.

Virgil Sharpe, Assistant Registrar, said, "There was a minimum of confusion, and the registration process seemed to go faster than previous ones."

He also added that the Registrar's Office and the Data Processing department appreciated the students' cooperation during pre-registration.

Summer school registration may be handled by mail or in the Registrar's Office June 7, 8 or 9.

Those students who pre-registered last week must pick up their class cards by Sept. 10 or the cards will be returned to the files. Those who did not pre-register may sign up for classes Sept. 13.

Achievement Day Awards Banquet Slated for June 1

At the annual Achievement Day Awards banquet June 1, two prizes and four scholarships will be presented.

The 6:30 banquet in the Student Center will, for the first time in 14 years, honor faculty members rather than distinguished OU alumni.

The prizes to be awarded are

Journalists Visit High Schoolers

Four members of the OU Press Club spoke to thirty Tech High Journalists Wednesday.

Mary Beth Meyers, Chuck Barry, Arlo Grafton and Rusty Harmsen talked to the students about college journalism, curriculum and careers.

This was the fifth High School the group has talked to this semester.

The purpose of the visitations is to attract talented high schooler students into the field of journalism.

Volume XLI OMAHA UNIVERSITY
OMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1962 No. 29

Popular Music and Jazz Concert Will Conclude 'Heritage' Series

An American popular music and jazz concert will be given Sunday as the conclusion of the 1962 series of American Heritage lectures and concerts.

The concert, "Showcase II," will commence at 8:15 p.m. in the main auditorium. It is open to the public free of charge.

OU's honorary music fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, will present the concert. The 16-piece band will be directed by Al "Red" Travis.

Rogers Music Chosen

The music of Richard Rogers, chosen as the fraternity's "composer of the year," will be featured in the first half of the concert. Selections will include "Younger Than Springtime," "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," "Small Hotel," and "Happy Talk."

The jazz beat will take over after the intermission, and representative pieces by Stan Kenton, Jay Hill, Bob Siebert, Henry Mancini, and other modern composers will be played.

Kenton's "Opus in Pastels," Hill's "Bon Voyage," Siebert's "Medium Rare" and "Jazz Suite," and Mancini's "Well Alright, Okay, You Win" are among those to be presented. The latter piece is described as "music to practice telling your boss off by."

Six to Represent OU at Exhibit

The work of six OU art majors will be on exhibit in the Student Center Ballroom from May 21-31.

Scholarship students Judy Church and Lee Burrill will exhibit paintings, drawings and prints.

Exhibiting thesis work are Judy Horstman, ceramics; Karen Plummer, ceramics; Rich Hamlin, jewelry; Don Hager, painting and Jim Engler, painting.

The art faculty will grade, judge and select work to add to the permanent university collection.

Grafton Picks Gateway Staff

The fall staff of the GATEWAY has been named by Arlo Grafton, the new editor-in-chief.

Managing editor will be Mary Beth Meyers. She has worked on the paper for three semesters. One semester as society editor, one as news editor and one semester as a reporter.

Paul Beavers will be acting as news editor. Paul recently won the Omaha Press Club Scholarship. This award is presented annually to an outstanding journalist at the university. He is also a full time newsman at a local television station.

Next semester's feature editor is Linda Bolton. This is her first position on the staff. Linda will be a sophomore next fall.

Marilou Thibault will continue as society editor. She will also be organizations editor for the 1962-63 TOMAHAWK.

Trackman—Tom Ash—is the new sports editor. Tom will be a junior next fall.

Former make-up editor, Carl Schreiner, is the art editor for next fall's GATEWAY.

Mary Jane Cooper will be the new copy editor. She was the faculty editor for this year's yearbook. Mary Jane also will be the advertising manager for next year's yearbook.

Student Officers Elected by IRE

New officers for the Institute of Radio Engineers have been elected for the coming year.

They are as follows: Douglas Cozad, president; Frank McLean, vice-president; Joe McNulty, secretary, and David Schuur, treasurer.

These people were named at May 14 meeting of the organization. Professor Hunter of the University of Iowa was the guest speaker.

Regents Approve Faculty Additions

Four new faculty members were approved by the University of Omaha Board of Regents yesterday. All appointments are effective Sept. 1.

Dr. Walter J. Beaupre was named associate professor of special education and director of speech therapy.

Dr. Robert P. Borgman was named assistant professor of botany and micro-biology and supervisor of nurses training program in biology.

Miss Judy Beckman will be an instructor in physical education for women.

David Frandt was appointed physics instructor.

Building, Grounds Release Summer Months Projects

Buildings and Grounds released a list of approximately 60 projects this week that would be undertaken during the summer months. Most of the projects deal with facelifting and modernizing of existing facilities.

Several of the major projects included in the 33 thousand dollar summer budget are:

—Construction of a new sidewalk running along the north and west sides of the Fieldhouse.

—Construction of a new sidewalk from the south door of the Music Annex to the south east door of the Fieldhouse.

—Installation of parking lot lights in the lot north of the baseball diamond and in the lot at the extreme north west corner of the campus.

—Construction of two moveable ticket booths to be placed in the drive immediately north of the stadium. The purpose will be to speed up the sale of tickets by allowing four lines of traf-

Seniors Feted Today at OU

This morning at 11, the senior class of 1962 will be honored with a traditional "Senior Day" on the Student Center Ballroom terrace.

After the prelude and processional, Jack A. Malick will conduct the Omaha University Band in the "National Anthem." Kendall Brink, Senior Class President will then read a welcome.

Dr. Ralph Wardle of the English Department will give the charge to the class. Following this, Ann Pence, class secretary, will read the class history.

The class prophecy will be presented by Kent McCallam, class Vice President.

After President Milo Bail accepts the class gift, the Alpha Lambda Delta, American Association of University Women, and the Delta Sigma Pi awards will be presented. Other awards to be given are the Paul T. Crossman Memorial Award, and the Wall Street Journal Award.

ODK, Waakiya Top Members

Twenty-one OU students and one faculty member were tapped Wednesday night into Waakiya and ODK. The tapplings were held after the All-School Sing in the Student Center.

Fifteen coeds were chosen for membership in Waakiya, a local leadership honorary for senior women. They were Dolores Brewer, Beverly Merica, Suzie Sipherd, Dianne Barker, Gail Grove, Judy Rinschen, Carolyn Karre, Mary Poulson Kuhn and Nancy Lindell.

Other coeds tapped for Waakiya were Sue Archer, Mona McGrath Donat, Karen Pope, Sandra Deckert Blakeway, Beth Nelson and Anita Lee.

In the tapplings for ODK, Omicron Delta Kappa, the leadership honorary for junior and senior men, John Baker, Max Voigt, Jim Leslie, Kent McCallum, Terry Bernth and Jim Gammon were selected. Dr. Aldrich K. Paul, associate professor and head of the speech department, was also tapped.

Summer Jobs Open

If you are running into difficulty finding summer employment, it is possible that the Student Placement Office, headed by Yvonne Harsh, can help you.

The jobs, both full and part-time, vary greatly in type.

For further information on these jobs it is necessary to register at the room 213 of the Administration Building.

Chemistry Honorary Adds New Members

Gamma Pi Sigma, Chemistry honorary fraternity, received twenty-eight new members at a dinner in the Student Center Tuesday evening.

This brought the total membership to over fifty.

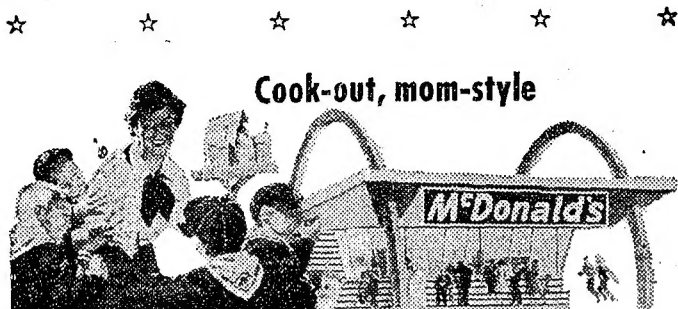

The members of Gamma Pi Sigma are picked by the chemistry professors, and must be in the top ten per cent of their chemistry class.

8022 WEST DODGE AND 48TH & AMES

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

During the last year the student body has witnessed a tremendous revival of enthusiasm and school spirit concerning the support of varsity athletic teams. On most other "big time" campuses the cheerleading squads are represented by the cheerleaders. Last week four male students of high campus standing tried out for the cheerleading squad with a routine of cartwheels, flips, handstands, and two new cheers made up by themselves. The female students trying out for the cheerleading squad praised these boys as "great."

We feel that these boys would have been a credit to the cheerleading squad, the athletic team and the University of Omaha.

We, along with many other students, are wondering why these boys failed to make the cheerleading squad with such a display of talent. Despite the decisions of the judges we will continue in the future to support Omaha University athletics as we have in the past.

Students Display 'Lack of Interest'

Hollis Merritt, president of the Omaha University Young Republicans, tried to drum up some support this week to help in distributing informational material on Tuesday's election.

Drawing no response to his request for aid, Merritt placed stacks of the League of Women Voters' nonpartisan election information in Gateway boxes on campus.

He had tried to get help for the job from his own organization, the YR's, and from the Young Democrats.

He told William Utley, head of the political science dept., "on one seemed interested." So Merritt did the job himself.

"This seems to be an indication of the general lack of political interest by OU students," Utley said.

The combo, the "U-Neeks," will play for the last TGIF party of the year this afternoon. The dance will be held in the OUampi Room from 3 until 5.

The Omaha University chapter of the Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society will hold a steak fry at the Fremont State Lakes, June first.

Members should make their reservations with the Chemistry Department by Wednesday, May 23.

Angels Moulting: Plan New Garb

The members of Angels Flight have recently voted to change the Angel uniform. The change will become effective next fall.

Even though several observers feel the present Angel uniform should be adopted by the Women's Air Force on a national basis, some of the Angels feel it is too impractical.

The white satin cape is cold in the winter time. The shoulder boards bend and feel uncomfortable under outer garments, some members maintained.

The cape will be replaced by an Air Force jacket to match the skirts now worn by the Angels. The tentative coat selection will be slightly longer than an "Ike" jacket and will have a military braid on the collar and down the front, and around the bottom.

The Air Force cap will be retained and rank will be displayed in the form of pips on the cap.

A white classic blouse will be worn under the jacket. In warm weather the blouse will be worn alone.

Traditions come and go on campus... this is to be accepted. However, it is questioned, now, if the Angels really have given deep thought before letting the traditional white cape fade from the OU campus scene.

Confab Planned Via Phone Booth

A tele-lecture from a pay telephone booth on Bourbon Street, New Orleans, will be a part of the five planned for the Nebraska Blue Cross-Blue Shield training program.

The conference will be held in the Conference Center from May 23 to May 26.

Speaking from the Bourbon Street booth will be Dr. Wendell Wilksell, professor of speech at Louisiana State university.

Dr. Elizabeth Mudge, director of personnel and public relations at the Rhode Island Hospital in Providence, will speak from Convention Hall in Atlantic City. She will address 4,000 delegates of the Middle Atlantic Hospital Assembly as well as the listening audience. Program participants here will be able to question Dr. Mudge.

Other tele-lecturers will be Dr. Jack Gibb, speaking from Princeton, New Jersey; Dr. Robert McMurry from San Francisco and Dr. Harold Zelko from the Barbazon Hotel in New York City.

Dr. Aldrich Paul will be moderator for the entire program.

Exceptional Children Are Conference Topic

The Nebraska Federation of the Council for Exceptional Children will hold their annual conference today and tomorrow at the University.

Dr. Frances Mullen, Assistant Superintendent of the Chicago Public Schools, will be the featured speaker.

Dean Gorman of the College of Education said that between 100 and 150 persons will attend.

The conference will include lectures, panel discussions and visitations to schools in the Omaha area.

The council deals with children from the ages of 5 to 16.

The conference is sponsored by the Nebraska Federation of the Council for Exceptional Children and Omaha University.

Girl Watcher's Guide

Presented by Pall Mall Famous Cigarettes

First field trip

LESSON 7- Keep moving

One of the most important rules of girl watching is this: keep moving. In fact, it is always a good idea not only to move, but to appear to be going somewhere. (This is especially important on group field trips.) Beautiful girls, although they enjoy being watched, are instinctively suspicious of strollers and downright fearful of loiterers.

The man who is walking briskly, who looks like he's "going places," makes a better girl watcher. For one thing, he sees more total girls and in the end he enjoys his hobby more. (If you are planning an extended field trip—to Paris and Rome, for example—be sure to pack a couple of cartons of Pall Mall.)

PE Majors Choose Norton Miss Physical Fitness of '62

Nancy Norton displays the beauty that won her the title of Miss Physical Fitness of 1962.

Nancy Norton was chosen the 1962 Miss Physical Fitness by the men's P.E. majors at a picnic in Elmwood Park Monday night.

Nancy is affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. She is a sophomore, majoring in Art.

The other candidates were Alma Burzdzius, Nancy D'Agosta and Cathie Bowman.

Last year Nancy was initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary. She is also bulletin board chairman for Zeta, treasurer of the Christian Science organization and a member of the Art Club.

Nancy, who is active in OU drama productions, plans to attend an art school in the East for additional training after graduation.

Fashion Show Given by OU

The second annual tea and fashion show for senior women graduates of the Omaha, Council Bluffs and Bellevue public high schools will be held June 10 in the Student Center Ballroom from 2 to 4 p.m.

The affair is being given by the women of the University under the direction of Junior and Senior Panhellenic Councils.

Models selected for the fashion show are 16 freshmen girls, and they will wear outfits typical of a college wardrobe. The models are Carol Bachus, Virginia Bohaty, Linda Bolton, Kathy Bowman, Marcia Cathcart, Joyce Denne, Catherine Elliot, Phyllis Faasse, Gloria Foucek, Linda Hallquist, Sandra Hancock, Barbara Jacobson, Nancy Katz, Carole Kucera, Judy McCoy and Margie Scott.

Sig Eps Name Sweetheart

Tomorrow night Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity will reveal the identity of its new Sweetheart for 1962.

The candidates announced in last week's GATEWAY are: Jan Moravac, Carol Morgan, Dotti Mott, Mabel Simpson and Judy Sullivan.

The new Sweetheart will be crowned by last year's Sweetheart, Leanna Haar Skarnulis.

The annual dinner-dance will be held in the ballroom of the Blackstone Hotel from 6:30 until midnight.

A combo called the "Coolers" will play for the dance. Sweetheart ceremonies will take place during intermission.

Sponsors for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hurst and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pullen.

A cocktail party for Sig Eps and their dates will be held at Gary Morey's home before the dinner.

Homemakers Win Dietetics Award

Five senior women majoring in home economics have received appointments for assistantships and internships in dietetics.

Carol Temme, who will be graduated in August, will be working toward her master's degree at Ohio State University through an assistantship in food and nutritional research. Carol is minoring in biology and is a member of the Home Ec Club.

Three internships have been awarded to the following: Miriam Katz, a year's internship at Beth Israel Hospital in Boston, Mass.; Diane Ulrich, University of Minnesota; and Annie Williams, Freedman's Hospital, Washington, D. C.

Sigmas Elect Kaare, Karpisek to Offices

Sigma Kappa has elected new officers for the coming school year. The officers are: Carolyn Karre, president; Marie Karpisek, first vice-president; Carolyn Curry, second vice-president; Cynthia Evahn, recording secretary; Carolyn Karpisek, corresponding secretary; Yvonne Tassar, treasurer, and Polly Orr, rush chairman.

The Kappas have been visited by traveling secretary JoAnn Zimmerer. Miss Zimmerer held discussion periods with the new officers.

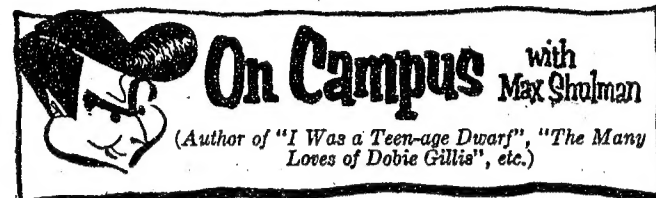

Convention Elects Graham Secretary

During the State Canterbury Convention in Kearney last week end an OU student was elected as a diocesan officer for the coming year.

Olive Graham, a sophomore on this campus, was elected secretary of the State Canterbury organization.

Other officers are president, Skip Pounds, Hastings College, and vice president, Jim Roach, University of Nebraska.

The OU Canterbury Club will hold its last meeting June 15.

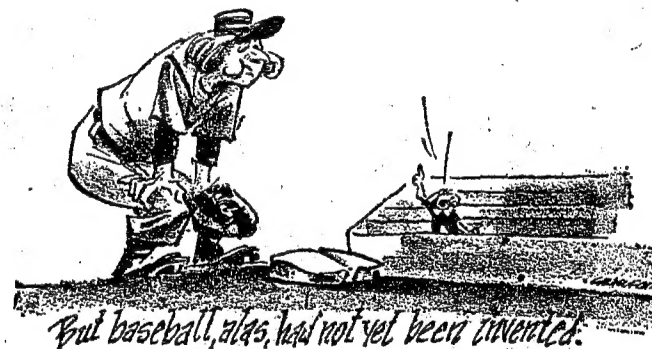

CRAM COURSE NO. 5: SHAKESPEARE

Continuing our series of pre-final exam cram courses, today we take up the works of William Shakespeare (or "The Bard of Avon" as he is jocularly called).

First let us examine the persistent theory that Shakespeare (or "The Pearl of the Antilles" as he is affectionately referred to) is not the real author of his plays. Advocates of this theory insist that the plays are so full of classical allusions and learned references that they couldn't possibly have been written by the son of an illiterate country butcher.

To which I reply, "Faugh!" Was not the great Spinoza's father a humble woodcutter? Was not the immortal Isaac Newton's father a simple second baseman? (The elder Newton, incidentally, is one of history's truly pathetic figures. He was, by all accounts, the greatest second baseman of his time, but baseball, alas, had not yet been invented.) It used to break young Isaac's heart to see his father get up every morning, put on uniform, spikes, glove, and cap, and stand alertly behind second base, bent forward, eyes narrowed, waiting, waiting, waiting. That's all—waiting. Isaac loyally sat in the bleachers and yelled, "Good show, Dad!" and stuff like that, but every one else in town used to snigger and pelt the Newtons with overripe fruit—figs for the elder Newton, apples for the younger. Thus, as we all know, the famous occasion came about when Isaac Newton, struck in the head with an apple, leapt to his feet, shouted, "Europa!" and announced the third law of motion: "For every action there is an opposite and equal reaction!"

(How profoundly true these simple words are! Take, for example, Marlboro Cigarettes. Light one. That's the action. Now what is the reaction? Pleasure, delight, contentment, cheer, and comfort! And why such a happy reaction? Because you have started with a happy cigarette—a felicitous blend of jolly tobaccos, a good-natured filter, a rollicking flip-top box, a merry soft pack. As Newton often said, "You begin with better makin's, you end with better smokin's." Small wonder they called him "The Swedish Nightingale!"

But I digress. Back to Shakespeare (or "The Gem of the Ocean" as he was ribaldly appalled).

Shakespeare's most important play is, of course, Hamlet (or Macbeth, as it is sometimes called). This play tells in living color the story of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, who one night sees a ghost upon the battlements. (Possibly it is a goat he sees: I have a first folio edition that is frankly not too legible.) Anyhow, Hamlet is so upset by seeing the ghost (or goat) that he stabs Polonius and Bare Bodkin. He is thereupon banished to a leather factory by the King, who cries, "Get thee to a tannery!" Thereupon Ophelia refuses her food until Laertes shouts, "Get thee to a beanery!" Ophelia is so miffed that she chases her little dog out of the room, crying, "Out, out damned Spot!" She is fined fifty shillings for swearing, but Portia, in an eloquent plea, gets the sentence commuted to life imprisonment. Thereupon King Lear and Queen Mab proclaim a festival—complete with amateur theatricals, kissing games, and a pie-eating contest. Everyone has a perfectly splendid time till Banquo's ghost (or goat) shows up. This so unhinges Richard III that he drowns his cousin, Butt Malmsey. This leads to a lively discussion during which everyone is killed. The little dog Spot returns to utter the immortal curtain lines:

*Alack, the play forsooth was sad and sobby,
But be of cheer—there's Marlboros in the lobby!*

Honoraries Feted At Annual Banquet

Students, faculty and alumni members of Corinthians, Wao-kiya and Omicron Delta Kappa honoraries are invited to the annual Honors Banquet May 20 in the House and Garden Room of the Blackstone Hotel.

The guest speaker at the 6:30 p.m. dinner will be Dr. James E. Miller, chairman of the English department at the University of Nebraska.

An author and editor, Dr. Miller will speak on "An Acme and an Endorser."

Stacke to Assume Presidency of SEA

The Student Education Association officers for the coming year. They are: Karen Stacke, president; Sue Archer, vice-president; Sue Thompson, secretary; Judy Rinschen, treasurer; Linda Anderson, historian; Mary Beth Moulton, publicity chairman.

SEA held its final meeting of the year May 9. A team was held and guests were future teachers from local high schools.

Guest speakers included Dr. Bail, Dr. Bethel, Dr. Dunn and Dean Gorman.

IFC Sets Rush Date For Week of Sept. 10

The Interfraternity Council has announced Rush Week will be held Sept. 10-16.

The traditional fraternity Smoker will be held on Sept. 9.

Rushes will pay a $4 fee to participate in formal rush. This fee can be paid at the Smoker or during registration week.

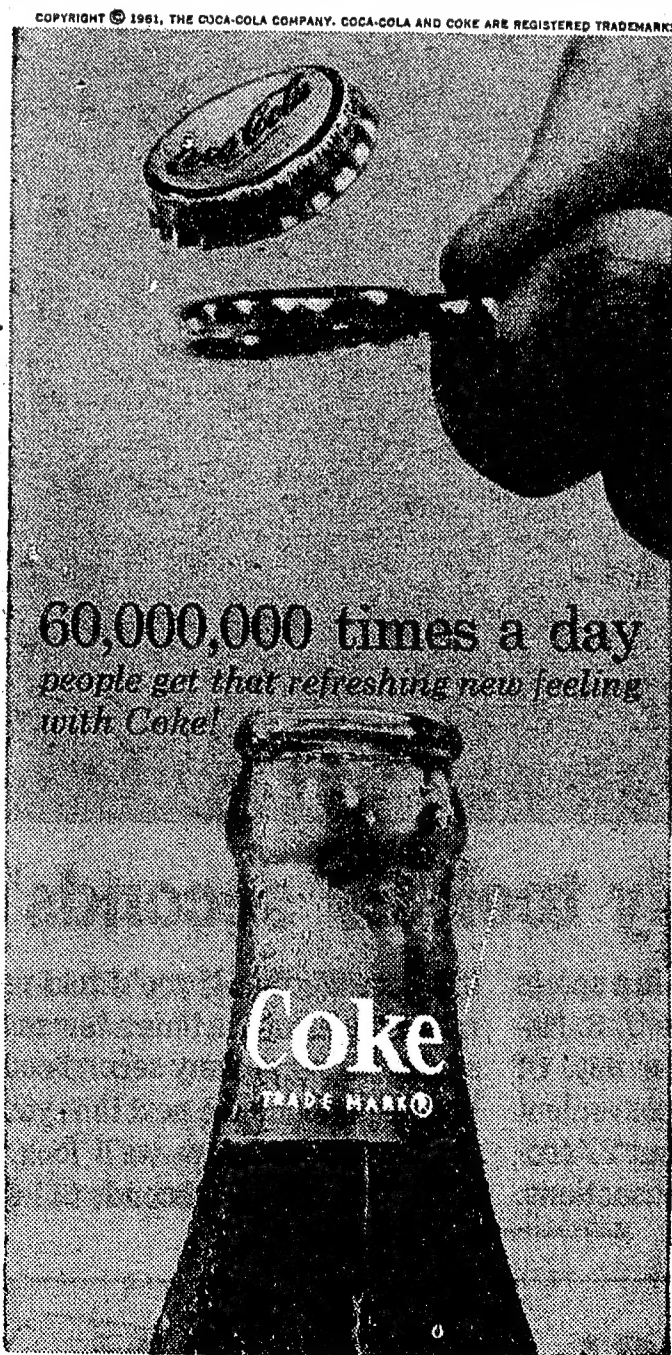

Preference Day will be Sept. 16 from 1-4 p.m. Rushes will sign up in Room 250 of the Student Center.

Seniors Honored At Chi O Breakfast

Chi Omega sorority will entertain their graduating seniors at a breakfast May 20 at the home of Mary Johnson.

The 9 a.m. event is being planned by Sue Archer and her co-chairman, Jana Doxon.

Entertainment will consist of a skit presented by Dolores Brewer, Karen Luschen, JoAnn Vanderstoep and Marilyn Spear.

As the slings and arrows of outrageous finals loom closer, perchance the makers of Marlboro are not untoward to offer this friendly suggestion: Get thee to a library!

"But it only took 27 seconds"

But Dudley, 27 seconds makes all the difference in a sports car rally. You really should have stopped by the U. S. National Bank's Drive-in Walk-in Bank on another day. Of course, we pride ourselves on giving fast and convenient service at our 20th and Douglas Drive-in Bank, but 27 seconds is about our average time for handling transactions.

It's possible that if you'd told us your circumstances, we might have cut the time a few seconds, but still and all, in a sports car race, every second counts. Take heed from Dudley's experience the next time you're entered in a race. Pass us by—we'll look for you later when you have 27 seconds of leisure to spare.

Do you think that the use of IBM cards speeded up registration for the students?

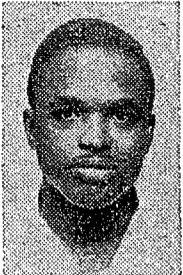

Dick Treakle
Freshman
Economics

Dick Treakle, freshman, economics: "Yes, it was a lot faster this time. I only had to wait in line for about 10 minutes as compared to about 30 minutes last February."

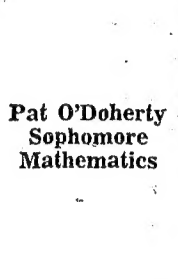

Helen Shuput
Junior
Home Economics

Helen Shuput, junior, home economics: "I think it will be much faster next semester. I didn't notice too much difference this semester because the registrars were not completely familiar with the new system."

George W.
Sheppard
Junior
Sociology

George W. Sheppard, junior, sociology: "I believe that right now the use of IBM cards has slowed down registration, but in the long run it will be most efficient and a definite aid."

Pat O'Doherty

Karen Deichmann, freshman, medical technology: "Yes, definitely. It was much faster. It only took me about 10 minutes to get my cards this time. Last semester I had to wait in line for about an hour."

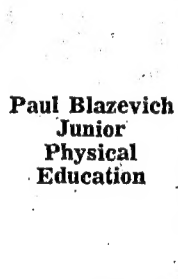

Sandra Blakeway Most Valuable

A 21-year-old senior recently received a trophy from the Procter & Gamble Co., Crisco Division, as the most valuable student in the home economics department.

The award, which is given annually, went to Sandra Deckert Blakeway, past president of the Home Ec Club.

Sandra is also a member of Chi Omega sorority, Alpha Lambda Delta and Corinthians honoraries.

After graduation in August, Sandra will assume the position of Assistant Foods Service Director at Texas A & M University in College Station, Texas.

Paul Blazeovich

Tom Horton, sophomore, economics: "I sure do. It took me less than 5 minutes to get my class cards this time."

O.U. Is Expanding Availability of Loans

Omaha University is expanding the availability of scholarship and loan funds, Dean Don Pflasterer said.

Among the loans that will be available this fall for O.U. students are the National Defense Loan Fund for business majors, the Altrusa Club loan for women students and the Ak-Sar-Ben loan available to both men and women.

Dean Pflasterer said all were short term loans with the exception of the National Defense loan.

He said that the University is attempting to appropriate more than the amount available to students last year.

The Dean said every dollar of the $64,000 of the National Defense loan fund was used for this year.

He said all applications for any of these loans are due not later than August 1st.

The Student Personnel office will accept applications for scholarships anytime.

Summer Courses Could Be A Sound Investment for You

Summer classes afford students an opportunity to cut the time and cost of their education considerably.

It is surprising at the number of students who fail to take advantage of this opportunity.

Summer classes are available to anyone who wants to work fast and hard with a minimum of "goofing off."

These classes are designed to cover a normally 16 week course in five weeks.

This is probably the factor that most students consider when they decide not to attend these classes.

Although these classes demand more time per course during the short term, most of us have more time to devote to study.

If a student was able to absorb 12 credit hours of work every summer for the three summers he was an undergraduate, he would be able to cut the total time of his undergraduate education to three years instead of four.

This would eliminate a year's living expenses and add another year's earning power to him. This would amount to quite a sum for many of us.

Considering the rising cost of education summer school would be an economically sound investment for many.

So think it over. Wouldn't you gain from it?

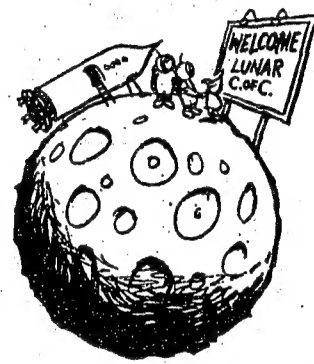

Engineers Meet, Discuss Needs

About 40 local businessmen attended an engineer advisory committee meeting Monday evening in the Student Center. Presiding was Col. Anson D. Marston of the Omaha University engineering department.

Representatives from local firms said there is a great demand for engineers who are able to do technical writing and deliver speeches of their findings.

2 Wins Today Would Give Indians CIC Baseball Title

A fourth straight Central Intercollegiate Conference title will be on the line as OU tackles Washburn this afternoon in two seven-inning contests at Topeka, Kans.

After the Washburn series today the Indians will move on to Pittsburg State for two more games tomorrow. These games will not count in the CIC standings.

The Indians moved to the top of the CIC with a sweep of a double-header against St. Benedict's last Saturday, 5-0 and 10-3.

A sweep of the two-game series this afternoon would leave the Indians alone on top of the CIC heap. A split or two losses could leave them in a tie with either St. Benedict's or Emporia State with a possibility of the other two clubs dethroning OU as the champ. St. Benedict's and Emporia played two games earlier this week. The outcome was not known as the GATEWAY went to press.

Lipman Slugger

Freshman Steve Lipman used his bat as well as his pitching arm to gather in his sixth win of the season Tuesday. Lipman's homer in the second game against Rockhurst helped the Indians to a 6-3 win after teammate Barry Miller had won the first contest 7-2. Miller's win in the opener was his ninth without a loss.

Lipman now has hit three home runs.

The Indians, currently boasting a 16-3 mark, will try to make it 21-3 as they close out the 1962 campaign.

Creighton comes to the OU diamond Tuesday in the final contest for the Indians. OU bombed the Jays 9-5 in their first meeting this year.

Mound Staff Gets Test

The Indian mound corps will get a tough test with four games being played in two days.

Regular starters Barry Miller and Steve Lipman will probably go against Washburn. Both have pitched with only two days rest earlier this week winning against St. Benedict's Saturday and Rockhurst Tuesday.

The only other two that have started this year, Mike Coughlin and Frank Pecha, are like candidates for the Pittsburg series.

Macaitis, Sayers Earn Awards at Banquet

Stan Macaitis was named the Outstanding Senior Athlete at the first annual All Sports Gala May 12.

Macaitis won the award on the basis of outstanding contributions to the Indian winning baseball teams the past four years.

The fact that Stan's career appeared finished during his freshman year made the alumni award more satisfying. A broken leg suffered in football indicated his playing days were over, but he made a comeback on the diamond squad and his big stick has made opposing pitchers nervous ever since.

Sayers Sighted

Approximately 300 guests at the affair also saw Roger Sayers presented the Athlete of the Year award. This came as no big surprise since the Rocket was one of the biggest names in the CIC in both football and track. His long range scoring at halfback for the Indians landed him a spot on the all-conference team, and sweeping of the sprints in the conference track meet were plenty of reason to win the award.

The Buck Club of the Alumni Association also presented the award to the best first year football player, Jack Kiscoan, who starred at end in his rookie season.

Taylor Scholar

Al Taylor, the football playing Student Council President, was also on the list of award winners. He was named the senior scholar-athlete of the year. Al sports a 2.83 grade average.

Football coach Al Caniglia, who took over the chores as wrestling coach this year was also honored. The wrestlers presented him with a plaque.

Women Feted

The men didn't reap all the rewards, though. Karolee Bunnie Wybanga received the In-dianne award, and Midge Butters won the band's award.

In the competition for the best table decoration, The AFROTC drill team, the Sabres, came out on top. That win, plus the prize winning Maie Day float, made it a double campus victory for the tiny outfit.

Tennis Team Drops Three to End Season

Indian courtmen closed out the '62 campaign by dropping seven matches to Nebraska on the Lincoln campus Tuesday. Omaha failed to secure a victory throughout the afternoon losing all singles and doubles matches.

Freshman Joe Benson from Paducah, Kentucky won Omaha's lone point against Creighton last Friday at Dewey Park 6-1. Benson defeated Francis Nemecek, 6-4, 6-4.

Drake also proved too much for Indian tennists handing Omaha a 9-0 setback on Wednesday, May 9.

Two wins and eight losses was Omaha's final record, both meets won were from Doane.

Pi Kaps Win Intramural Track Meet; Sig Eps Take Golf; Archery Is Today

The Pi Kaps edged the Sig Eps 68-63½ to win the annual outdoor intramural track meet Wednesday afternoon on the University track.

The Tr-Ls finished right behind the Sig Eps in the third position with 62 tallies. The "O" Club captured the fourth position with 46½ counters.

Randall Bernhagen of the Tr-L's was a triple winner in the meet.

He won the 120-yd high hurdles, 220-yd low hurdles, and the broad jump.

Denny Madigan of the TKE's was a double winner taking both the dash events.

Nick Dixon also won two events. He took the 880-yd run and the mile run.

Warren Lenz, "O" Club, captured the shot put and discus events.

Loren Fritz, Sig Eps, finished ahead of the pack in the 440-yd dash.

Phil Fisher, Pi Kaps, threw the javelin the farthest to take that event.

Steve Gidley, Pi Kaps, soured the highest in the pole vault event.

Bill Banter, Sig Eps, took top honors in the high jump.

The Pi Kaps won both the 880-yd relay and the mile relay.

The "O" Club took the 440-yd relay.

Intramural Director Bert Kurth praised the participants in the track meet. He said the meet was exceptional because it was undecided down to the last event.

Softball

The Bootstrappers continue to lead the pack in the independent league of intramural softball.

The Strappers are sporting a 4-0 record with the last game yesterday too late for this issue.

The Zeke Moe Joes are in the runner-up position having suffered only one loss. The Hilltoppers are third.

In the fraternity league the Pi Kaps and Lambda Chi clashed yesterday to decide the championship in that league.

Both teams were sporting 4-1 records going into the final contest.

The Sig Eps and TKE's met to decide the third spot in the league. Both had won one and lost four.

Golf

The Sig Eps won the interfraternity golf championship, edging out Lambda Chi by one-half point.

The Sig Eps finished with 3½ points while losing only one-half counter.

Lambda Chi posted three markers with one point in the losing column.

The Pi Kaps finished in the third position at 2½-1½.

Three Sig Eps shared the honors for season low.

Bill Stillmock, Denny Graves and Chuck Schmid shot 38's.

Archery

The intramural archery tournament will be held this afternoon on the football field. The event will start at 3:30.

There will be equipment available for those who need it but you may use your own if so desired.

Those interested in competing in the tournament should sign up before the meet in the intramural office, Room 240 of the Administration Building.

Golf Team Finishes Season With Loss to Nebraska U

Omaha traveled to Lincoln on Monday to wrap-up the '62 season and were defeated 12-3 in a meet plagued by high winds.

Low man for Indian linksmen was Ernie Meeker who fired a 81. Bill Giese and John Gaffney shot a 87 and 88 respectively.

Omaha finished the season with a 8-4 record losing twice to Nebraska and once each to Kansas State and Washburn.

Golf prospects look good for next year with two regulars returning. Veterans Bill Bantner and Bill Giese shot consistently in the 80's and should be a nucleus for the '63 season.

OU Fifth in CIC

Fifth place was OU's destiny in the Central Intercollegiate Track Championships held here last weekend. OU could only muster 29 points while the winner, Emporia, gathered 98.

Roger Sayers and Jim Foster were the boys who captured firsts for the OU squad. Foster broad jumped 24-5½ for the top jump.

Sayers tied the record in the 100 with a time of :09.7. He ran a record breaking :21.5 in the 220. The time betters the mark of :21.7 Ed Washington set in 1960.

Dave Hagglund placed second in the high jump with a jump of 6-3.

OU's 440 team placed third in that event.

Alan Roberts earned points during the day by running fourth in the 100 and fifth in the 220.

OU lagged in the mile relay and ended up with fifth.

OU Women Show Athletic Form; Baker Paces WRA Track Meet

By Carol Vetter

Arlene Baker contributed 15 points and set two new records as Unaffiliated dominated the Women's Recreation Association Track and Field Meet last Thursday, May 10. With a total of 52 points, Unaffiliated outscored second place Chi Omega with 24 points and third place Alpha Xi Delta with 12 points.

Arlene took first place in all of the three events she entered. Contestants were allowed to enter only three events.

A new shotput record was set as Arlene putted the shot 33'1". She also hurled the softball 186'9" for a new record. Jan Seaman of Alpha Xi Delta also broke the softball throw with a distance of 176 feet.

Arlene took first place in the discuss throw with a heave of 69'5".

Two other records were also broken in the meet last Thursday. Jean Severa of Chi Omega broke her own hop, step, jump record with a distance of 31'3". Rose Allender of Unaffiliated set a new hurdles record with a time of 9.5 seconds.

Jan Seaman won the high jump competition with a 3'10" jump. Peggy Hurst of Unaffiliated won the standing broad jump with a distance of 7'7¾" while Mary Johnson of Chi Omega took the running broad jump with a leap of 12'5½".

Jean Severa also won the 50 yard dash with a time of 6.55 seconds. The Unaffiliated relay team tied last year's record with a 31.5 seconds time on the 220 yard relay.

Baker, Irwin Champs

Other WRA competition found Arlene Baker and Sharon Irwin of Unaffiliated capturing the badminton doubles championship. Carole Jeffrey and Linda Jellen of Chi Omega took second place.

Jeanie Dreier of Unaffiliated defeated Jean Severa of Chi Omega to take the WRA table tennis championship last Tuesday.
